

Interfaith event, Sydney, Australia

5 September 2017: Global Light of Peace event was hosted by the Middle Way Meditation Institute (MMI) at Luna Park, Sydney, occurring simultaneously with six other international cities including New York, Rio de Janeiro, Barcelona, Mozambique and Iloilo City, Philippines.

The event included speakers and items from different religious and cultural backgrounds, including Sister Morni Chen from the Brahma Kumaris, who gave a short talk on inner peace. BK Br Warren Carey also played the didgeridoo to bring everyone into meditation. A World Peace meditation was led by Venerable Burin, Director of MMI at the same time as international participants online, as the event attempted to break the Guinness Book of Records for the most people meditating for World Peace worldwide online.

A small group of BKs enjoyed also the views of Sydney Harbour at night.
