

*Now, make the nature of being soul conscious natural and you will become equal to the Father.
(Pure inspirations from Dadiji) 20/10/2021)*

Beloved Avyakt BapDada's deeply loving instrument teachers, brothers and sisters of this land and abroad who are the decoration of the Brahmin clan, the ones who are engaged in the service of world benefit through always remaining stable in your highest on high self-respect, ones who with the powerful state of your mind give sakaash to the whole world and transform everyone's intellect, please accept sweet, love-filled remembrance.

At present, beloved Avyakt BapDada's season for on-line meetings has begun, and restricted number of brothers and sisters are coming to Madhuban, according to their turn and being refreshed a lot. On the day of the incarnation, the vision of all of Baba's children in this land and abroad is particularly on Madhuban and on Baba of Madhuban. In a subtle way, everyone with the vehicle of the intellect is present in BapDada's vision. BapDada's drishti of blessings and His sweet words bring everyone new zeal and enthusiasm. It feels as though we are personally in front of BapDada and celebrating a meeting with Him. This combined form of science and silence is giving so many wonderful experiences. When everyone is sitting together and concentrating on one pure thought, powerful vibrations of peace begin to spread everywhere. BapDada constantly gives His children new and also different experiences. This time, Baba gave the special signal: Children, in order to become equal to the Father, then just as body consciousness has become your natural nature, in the same way, make soul consciousness your natural nature. For that, special signals have been given about some things in particular.

1. Throughout the day, repeatedly continue to practise the incorporeal and angelic stages.
2. Daily, take one point of self-respect or other that you like and practise that.
3. While walking, moving around and performing actions, make soul consciousness natural and your nature.
4. Always be the form of the mantra: Incorporeal, viceless and egoless.
5. Let there be greatness in your thoughts, humility in your words, the intention to serve in your actions and always have an attitude of good wishes and pure feelings in your relationships and connections.

If we take some of these main points from the murli, note them down and for a minimum, at least until the next avyakt murli, have this special practice and continue to keep a chart of our checking, all wastage will easily finish. Baba says: Children, it is now time to give sakaash to all souls of the world, to give those vibrations and create an atmosphere through your mind because delicate times are coming close. At such a time, remain stable in your angelic form with your flying stage, and, while touring around everywhere, give everyone an experience of peace, power and happiness. While observing all the scenes of upheaval in the world as a detached observer, do the service of giving sakaash, that is, co-operation. Make sure that you are not affected by the heat of any type of atmosphere. Tell me, you are keeping yourself busy with unlimited service while paying this attention to this, are you not? It is now time to let go of all limitations, to have an unlimited vision, attitude and good wishes for world transformation.

I am sure all of you must be healthy in body and mind. Together with love-filled remembrance, multimillionfold congratulations and greetings for the pure festivals of Navratri (9 nights of the goddesses), Vijaya Dashmi (Dassera), Deepawali, New Year and Bhai Duj. Achcha.

Lots of love and remembrance to all.

In Godly service,

B.K. Ratanmohini.

Homework for a tapaswi life – 1-15 November 2021
Now do the service of giving sakaash

- 1) Now, according to the time, carry out the task of giving sakaash and vibrations, and of creating an atmosphere by serving through the mind. Now, there is a need for this service because very delicate times are to come.
- 2) Now, become an angel through your flying stage and tour around everywhere. Whoever wants peace, happiness or contentment, give them that experience through your angelic form. Let them experience that they have received peace, power and happiness through you angels.
- 3) The vehicle of the inner body, that is, the final stage, the powerful stage, is your final vehicle. Emerge this form of yours in front of yourself, tour around in the angelic form and give them sakaash. Then they will sing the song: The shaktis have come... Then, the Almighty Authority will automatically be revealed through the shaktis.
- 4) As yet, nothing has happened. Everything is yet to happen. Do not be afraid; it is just a game. It is not destruction, but transformation. The attitude of disinterest needs to be created in everyone and this is why you have to be merciful, give the power of sakaash to the distressed souls through all your powers and have mercy.
- 5) You saw the sakar form: whenever there was any wave of something happening, Baba would then, day and night, pay special attention to giving sakaash and filling weak souls with power. He would make time at night and keep up the service of filling souls with sakaash. So, now, all of you have to become lighthouses and might houses and especially do the service of giving sakaash, so that the impact of light and might spreads everywhere, in all directions.
- 6) No matter what continues to happen in this physical world, angels watch all the parts being played from above as detached observers, and continue to give sakaash. All of you are instruments for world benefit, and so, while watching the whole game as a detached observer, do the service of giving sakaash, that is, co-operation. Do not give sakaash whilst you are off your seat. Remain stable in an elevated stage and then give it and you will then not be affected by any type of atmosphere.
- 7) Just as the Father is sitting in the subtle region, sitting in one place and sustaining all the children around the world, similarly, you children have to sit in one place and do unlimited service, like the Father. Follow the father. Give sakaash to the unlimited. Keep yourself busy in unlimited service and there will automatically be unlimited disinterest.
- 8) In order to attract you towards itself, Maya and the elements of nature bring many different colours and forms according to the close of time, but you children become an authority of experience and become victorious and free from obstacles and, with volcanic remembrance, give sakaash and co-operation to souls of the world and have mercy.
- 9) You can always do the service of giving sakaash. Any health, time or other issue becomes easy. You can remain engaged in this unlimited service day and night. When you give sakaash to the unlimited, then those close to you will automatically receive that sakaash. The atmosphere will automatically be created by giving sakaash to the unlimited.
- 10) You Brahmins, the original jewels, are the special trunk. Sakaash reached all parts of the tree through the trunk. So, give power to the weak ones. Use the time for your own effort in giving co-operation to others. To give co-operation to others means to accumulate for the self. Now, spread such a wave: I have to give, I have to give, I have to give and only give. Receiving is merged in the giving.
- 11) If you do not make your elevated plan for benefiting the self from now, then world service will not be able to receive sakaash. Therefore, now give sakaash to service and do the service of transforming the intellects. Then see how success itself bows down before you. Remove the curtain of obstacles with the powers of the mind and words, and the benefit hidden within will become visible.
- 12) As well as churning knowledge, have thoughts of good wishes and pure feelings, and also the practice of giving sakaash. Every now and then fix a day for silence of the mind and also for traffic control. Even if you don't get special leave to do this, you have at least one day free, and so, according to that, fix programmes at your own places. However, definitely make a programme to be in solitude and also to be economical with the treasures.

- 13) Scientists are also thinking of creating such an invention to finish all sorrow. The facilities generally give happiness as well as sorrow. They definitely think that it should not cause sorrow, and only give happiness, but they themselves do not have the experience of imperishable happiness in the soul, so how can they give it to others? All of you have the accumulated stock of happiness, peace and true and selfless love, so donate that.
- 14) Now, all Brahmin children have to pay special attention to spread vibrations of powerful remembrance everywhere, because all of you reside in the highest place of all. The place that is the high tower gives sakaash and spreads light and might. So, every day, for a minimum of four hours, consider yourself to be sitting in the highest of all places and giving light and might to the world.
- 15) At present, souls of the world are completely powerless, unhappy and peaceless. They are crying out and pleading: Give us happiness for a few moments, give us peace, give us courage! The Father cannot bear to see the sorrow and distress of the children. You worthy of worship souls have to become stable in your merciful form and give special sakaash to such souls.

Homework for the month of 16-30 November 2021 in the Year of Tapasya
Make the atmosphere powerful through your attitude

- 16) The fastest service is to spread vibrations through your attitude. The attitude is very fast, even faster than a rocket. You can transform the atmosphere with your attitude. You can reach wherever you want, to however many souls you want, while sitting here with your attitude. You can transform drishti and the world (srishti) with your attitude. Let there simply be good wishes and pure feelings for everyone in your attitude.
- 17) In order to benefit the world, let your attitude, vision and stage always be unlimited. Let there not be the slightest negative or wasteful feelings for any soul in your attitude. To enable something negative to be transformed is a different matter, but those who themselves have a negative attitude cannot change anything of others, that is, change something negative into something positive.
- 18) Now, according to the time, let the attitude of unlimited disinterest emerge. You cannot do the service of giving sakaash without having an attitude of unlimited disinterest. At present, since there is sorrow and peacelessness everywhere, the distress of the mind is increasing at a very fast speed. To the extent that waves of sorrow are increasing very fast, so, you souls who are the children of the Bestower of Happiness, with your power of the mind and your service of giving sakaash, give everyone the experience of a drop of happiness through your attitude.
- 19) Wherever you children are staying, whichever field of action you may be involved in, everyone should experience from each of you children virtues and actions just like the Father's and also an atmosphere of an elevated attitude. This is what it means to be equal to the Father. While having everything, with knowledge and the feeling of world benefit, with the feeling of revealing the Father and the self, now imbibe the attitude of unlimited disinterest.
- 20) At the beginning of the establishment, there was no lack of facilities, but everyone was all in the furnace of an attitude of unlimited disinterest. The fourteen years of tapasya they had was to create an atmosphere of the attitude of unlimited disinterest. BapDada has now given many facilities – there is no lack of the facilities, but while having all of these, let there be unlimited disinterest. Without the atmosphere of an attitude of disinterest souls cannot become happy and peaceful or free from their distress.
- 21) No matter how much someone who comes to you may be wandering, distressed and caught up in the waves of sorrow, and may be thinking that it's impossible to remain happy, let your image, your attitude and your drishti transform them as soon as they come in front of you. The attitude of unlimited disinterest in service will bring other souls closer. Serving through your lips will bring them into connection and serving through the atmosphere created by your attitude will bring them closer.
- 22) Now, you children have to carry out two types of work. Firstly, you have to make souls capable and yogi and, secondly, you also have to prepare the land. For this, together with serving through words, you will have to make your attitude work even faster, because your attitude will create the atmosphere, which will impact the elements, and only then will they become ready. Let your words and attitude be simultaneously engaged in service.

- 23) Let there be the experience of lightness through your words, actions and attitude. Do not say: I am light, but others do not understand me or recognize me. If they don't recognize you, then with your willpower, give them your recognition. Be liked by 95% of people. Let your actions and attitude transform them. For this, imbibe the power to tolerate.
- 24) If you have elevated feelings and elevated wishes in your attitude, you can give anyone a lot with a second's thought, with your drishti and with a smile from your heart. Give anyone who comes a gift; they should not go away empty-handed. To the extent that your foundation of faith is strong, accordingly, from the beginning until now, you will have the experience of being an easy yogi, one with a clean nature, an attitude of good wishes and a soul conscious vision in a natural way.
- 25) See, listen to and think about every person and every situation with a positive attitude and there will then never be any force or anger. You are master oceans of love and so your eyes, attitude, vision cannot have even a trace of any other feeling. Therefore, no matter what happens, even if the whole world is angry with you master oceans of love, do not be concerned about the world. Become a carefree emperor and then a powerful atmosphere will be created through your elevated attitude.
- 26) Nowadays, with inventions of science, they are able to change anything rough into something very beautiful. So, let your elevated attitude transform anything negative or wasteful into something positive. Let your mind and intellect become such that nothing negative touches them and transformation takes place in a second.
- 27) The power of the sun and the rays of the sun are carrying out their work in so many ways – they bring rain and also dry up the water. It demonstrates this by changing day into night and night into day. So, can you not spread the current of your powers into the atmosphere and liberate souls from their sorrow and peacelessness? For this make your form of a sun of knowledge emerge and spread the rays; spread that current.
- 28) If a soul with a particular sanskar or nature becomes an instrument to test you in your effort, let there always be benevolent thoughts and feelings towards that soul. Let nothing else be visible on your forehead, that is, in the awareness of your intellect and in your vision, except the soul conscious form and then you will be able to serve with your mind through your elevated and pure attitude.
- 29) Now, according to the time, there is a need for the intense effort of creating an atmosphere through your attitude and so let not a trace of rubbish remain. Then your vibrations will reach matter and the atmosphere will be created. Therefore, see each one's specialities and let your attitude always be pure. For this, remember: I have to give blessings and receive blessings. Listen to anything negative with one ear and let it out through the other.
- 30) You are the children of the Ocean of Forgiveness and so forgive souls who are under an external influence. Create such an atmosphere through your pure attitude that anyone who comes in front of you takes some love or co-operation and experiences forgiveness, courage, zeal and enthusiasm.
