

Om Shanti

Om Shanti Baba's lovely, lucky stars of success! We all are on the pilgrimage, and we should not forget it. One is when we go on pilgrimages in this lokik world, I think many of you must have gone before. We are on a spiritual pilgrimage, now we are doing the pilgrimage of silence. During the day, there are many situations where we just need to go in silence, and use the power of silence. Some enjoy the pilgrimage and some look forward more to their destination. A pilgrimage is more like constantly paying attention to efforts, and one should experience a lot of self transformation, in the sense of having all the attainments. Baba is saying that this is not temporary happiness, but it should be everlasting, consistent. Baba has been underlining the word 'consistent'. How can we be consistent? I asked this morning in a few classes, "Is there anyone whose mood is consistent, loveful, peaceful, happy, can I see hands? No one wants to claim any numbers, right? Generally, we always like to be in front, but what about this?"

So, take the blessing, and keep the aim that there should not be four types of things we allow in our mind, that makes the mood fluctuate. It is the energy of the thoughts, of the mind, that changes our mood. Sometimes there's a lot of joy, sometimes not, sometimes enthusiasm, sometimes not, the same is with our efforts. First, Baba said, "No confusion." Whenever you find you're not clear, just go into silence for a few moments, then clarity will come and you will be able to discern. Even if you ask ten people what is right, in the end, you have to decide. Whatever is happening according to Drama, we should not keep having questions. There are so many details. As many details as you take, your mind has so many thoughts. When I listen to people's stories, I listen in such a way that I don't remember. I listen, okay, Baba is there, but I can't repeat ever, because I don't want to remember. It is their karmas, their stories, their own drama, and everyone has their Ramayan, too! So, then there are no questions. Drama is accurate. We should become the embodiment and hold the Yagya, it's our duty. Subtle questions may come in the mind when something happens, then Baba says that it could be tension of some kind. We have to look at this kind of weakness of the mind. If we pay attention, as soon as anything arises, immediately take care of it, so that it doesn't affect our state of mind and change our mood.

In last Sunday's Murli, Baba said that some of the children's songs are of complaints, and some sing their own song, "I am very special in this" or "I can do this and I'm excellent in this thing." It is good to know your specialty, but don't sing a song. Baba says that when Baba's praise is sung, your praise is in that same song. Baba is the Ocean of Love, I am Master Ocean of Love. Baba is Ocean of Peace, I am Master Ocean of Peace. You don't have a separate place, because whatever qualities we have at the Confluence Age, are what Baba has given. Baba has given us these special qualities to play a special role. So, every moment of the Confluence Age, I am experiencing all attainments from Baba, all the qualities from Baba, and as a Star of Success, I keep increasing my light and might. You listen every evening, but you have to see, “How much transformation do I have in my thoughts? While doing homework we keep having more realizations, more transformation, and more consistency. It's not only that we enjoy being together and we are happy, or we like to listen, but we have to become the embodiment. Why did we do this journey of silence? So that we acquire inner quietness. As much as we acquire deeper silence, that mastery, it will be very useful in the end. We use all the powers, whether for the self, or to serve the elements or the world. Even to pass with honor, we will need a lot of power of silence.

Yesterday the homework was to experience the power to discern and decide. Every moment in life, you have to discern and decide and that is the example of the swan. I can see everything, but what do I have to take? Many things I hear, but how many things do I need to retain? That is my choice. Whatever atmosphere is there, what I create through my vibrations, is important to me. This morning, I took another homework assignment, saying, “I am an elevated soul” with determination. Let me just keep telling myself that I am an elevated soul. I did this many times throughout the whole day. Creating a thought and creating that experience within the soul, is something very important.

How much has Avyakt BapDada given, and how much do we receive from the Yagya, the sustenance, right? So, I have to be a living example of that. Just be alokik, everything alokik. As soon as there is something lokik, then bondage, sorrow, expectations, so many things arrive. In alokik awareness, there is just bhavna for each other. Then, everyone can use all their capacities, spiritual and physical, in a worthwhile way for Baba's Seva, and for world benefit. So, whatever homework you get for tomorrow, just take two words and repeat it to yourself as many times as you can, and then see the difference. Do you constantly experience yourself to be a child of the Bestower of Happiness who gives happiness to every soul? A lot of people ask if it is easy to make everyone happy. Baba says you have the speciality of giving happiness to everyone. Those who give happiness to everyone receive blessings from everyone. Baba says that this is why you always experience yourself to be happy, because of everyone's blessings, and with this speciality, your present and also your future will become good. You give everyone happiness through your service, so always remember your speciality, “I am the one who has to give happiness to everyone.” This whole life is really sharing, we receive, we give, we receive, we give, we give and receive both. Maintaining this attitude will keep us happy, and also we will share happiness with everyone.
