

“Answering The Call Of The Times”

with Great Yogi Sister Mohini

Dear Global Family,

Sharing every kalpa's wonderful fortunate scene in the drama.

On January 25th 2017, Baba's Center in Sacramento, Capital city of California, blessed with a visit by Raj Yogini Sister Mohini and Sister Gayatri from New York. There was much excitement for center Brahmins, and the Sacramento community to be graced with the presence of such powerful and prominent souls.

Sister Mohini arrived at the Sacramento center on the early afternoon of the 25th, and had a short loving sweet meeting with local Baba's children.

The evening event co-hosted and coordinated by local community leaders:

1. Jon Fish, President of Interfaith Council of Greater Sacramento.
2. Rev. Michael Moran, a long time BK friend, Former Senior Minister for the Spiritual Life Center of Sacramento and Interfaith, New Thought Church, now the creator of Oneness Ministries... A ministry devoted to fostering peace and mutual respect among world religions and spiritual traditions. Award winner of Unity Radio talk show Vision for Better World.
3. Rev. Kevin Ross, CEO and Senior Minister Unity of Sacramento, A New Thought Church, is well known in Sacramento Community for forming partnerships with interfaith and other organizations to support and empower the different initiatives of those who are working for harmony and peace in the world.

4. Rev. Gaya Swinford, former Senior Chaplain for the Spiritual Life Center... Now working with Happiness Initiative Empowering Youth.
 5. Rev. Faith Whitmore, Director of the Sacramento Regional Family Justice Center.
 6. TJ David and Sylvia Villalobos, Co-creators of International World Peace Rose Gardens around the world.
- and other city officials and Indian community Leaders.

Sister Mohini Giving Opening Remarks On Evening Topic "Answering The Call of Times"

Sister Mohini shared words of wisdom, about the Call of time for spiritual awakening, using power of silence, focusing on quality of thoughts and life of personal discipline... which opens a new way of looking at these times. She answered questions by community leaders and from the audience while inspiring them to cultivate new dimension of inner power and inner strength.

Sister Gayatri shared on the recent UN conference on Sustainable Development Goals.

California State Assemblyman Ken Cooley presented Sister Mohini with a certificate of appreciation from the State of California for the Community Service work performed.

Representative Mohammad Umbashi on Behalf of Ken Cooley Assembly
Presenting Certificate of Appreciation to Sister Mohini

Interfaith Leaders, Sister Mohini, Sister Gayatri and Sister Hansa

While sharing his thoughts on the evening topic, "Answering the Call of Times" Jon Fish, President of Interfaith Council of Greater Sacramento, introduced two Interfaith Projects:

1. Creating a, "I Have a Dream" mural, connecting with the message and vision of Martin Luther King, which will be eventually presented to Mayor of City of Sacramento... Everyone wrote their dreams for themselves, families, communities and the mother earth – our world. This mural continues its journey to different community events and churches.

2. Project "Omshanti", a Universal Sacred Mantra to spread vibrations of Peace. 400 beautifully prepared "Omshanti" cards were distributed.

All Spiritual Leaders offered, Blessings to express their deep love and respect to Sister Mohini's as their close association with her, being part of Call of Time dialogue and retreat.

Interfaith Leaders Offering Their Blessing to Sister Mohini

Event ended with beautiful Candle Light meditation by Sister Gayatri, taking everyone in the room beyond in the state of very peaceful and loving feelings.

Sister Gayatri Conducting Guided Candle Light Meditation

The evening concluded with light vegetarian meal, gifts, toli and blessings.

Guests Receiving Special Gift from Sister Mohini