(Arrival on Friday after 5:00pm; Departure on Sunday at 11:00am)

This fall the Brahma Kumaris, US, www.brahmakumaris.org/us and the Point of Life Foundation, US, www.pointoflife.us, are planning a very special event – a retreat for healthcare professionals – that we think you won't want to miss.... “Nurturing Healing Connections.”

At a time in healthcare when the focus on finance and efficiency seems to supersede all consideration, it is ever more necessary for healthcare givers to hold relationship as the center of all of our efforts in healing.

To do this with any means of consistency, we need healthy connections with ourselves, with other nurturing people, with nature, creation, and particularly with soul consciousness, the Divine. It is these connections that create the relationships out of which healing can emerge and be sustained, for ourselves, for patients, and for the world as a whole.

Come join us, colleagues in Health Care, at Peace Village in the beauty of fall, for dialogue, introspection, and connection and to learn and practice some of the tools for 'Nurturing Healing Connections.' We will explore and experiment with meditation as an important tool that takes us to the heart where our healing connections take birth and are sustained.
