Golden Chance :

A FREE Singing Competition Audition with aim to give a platform to all age groups who have singing talent and enhance their skills and talents is online through skype.

It has three stages:

The first is the Open Round in which all the participants sing songs of their choice. Even those who are not singers but are interested in singing can participate in this Open Round. In this open round participants have to sing any song of his/her choice without music track. Just they need to get connected through Skype to Radio Madhuban for auditions.

The participants who are selected on the basis of sur taal bhaav by the judges enter the second round. In the second round, they are given a theme and are provided some time so that they can prepare themselves. Selected contestants enter the third round of the competition.

The specialty of this competition and audition is that the first two rounds are done from the contestants own place through Skype.

For the FINALE third round, contestants selected from the second round sing on a theme given by us on tracks (orchestra or karakoe).

The Radio Madhuban team visits the local place and in a large public gathering of local audience, Tarang Digital Singing Competition of the 3rd round is organized with Orchestra or Karaoke.

All the contestants of this final round are given the certificate and the first three winners are also given the trophies along with the certificates by the VIP guests.

“The talent of music and dance should be for one’s inner self or inner satisfaction. It shouldn’t be for any ambition or for getting fame in the world . There should always be a balance between education and music or dance talent because education is necessary for developing one’s mind, for one’s personal growth and for sharpening the brain.”

- Anurag Basu

Film Director & Producer, Mumbai

“Happy to see that the Radio is not promoting itself like other media but is giving a platform to everyone who wants to sing and is developing their confidence.”

- Ashok Wadia

Principal, Jai Hind College, Mumbai

- Dilip Sen

Music Composer, Mumbai

“It’s a good work by Radio of awakening the hidden skill of those who have the talent of singing and giving them a platform too.”

- Asmita Shiroy

Mayor, Surat

“Difference between India’s music and abroad is that India’s music has primeness of words and others have melody & instrumental more. Radio on platform of Brahma Kumaris is working like a sword having 2 sharp edges inspiring spirituality in individuals alongwith inspiring & developing a taste for music in individuals.”

- K.C. Malu, Managing Director

Veena Cassettes, Jaipur

It is a Golden chance for all the music lovers who would like to participate in singing competition as the participation is from home. For this the participants sitting at home can record their song by mobile audio or video and send it to the following email id .
