Cordial Invitation

Dear spiritual brother/sister,

The healing fraternity across the country will be coming together at this extra ordinary event to uncover the unhealed emotional health of the healers. The stress and pressures of the day to day life of a doctor remain either hidden or neglected. This unique conference provides an opportunity and tools for finding what feeds for your inner self and to get your own need of knowing yourself fulfilled.

We feel a deep sense of divine love and connectedness with you, as we invite you to your own home, Shantivan the international head quarter of Brahma Kumaris, Abu Road, Rajasthan for the 39th National Conference on Mind Body Medicine.

In this conference, you will be introduced to effective cutting-edge state of the art research and practices from the highest caliber of expert practitioners, who expand awareness from across the healing spectrum across the globe.

You will enjoy memorable moments through out the conference to help inspire and refine your abilities. You may experience paradigm shift in your own healing and increased level of perception to motivate functional changes in your self and the working staff around you. You can move towards being the best that you can be. This is your opportunity to grow and share with like minded people because what we can accomplish together has no limits except in our imagination.

The magnificent Shantivan complex on the foot hills of Aravalli is a perfect place for embarking on the journey of self-exploration. The ambience of the place will fill you with renewed energy, positivity, divinity and serenity.

Looking forward to greet you at Shantivan.
