

Sudesh Didi – 25th December 2022 Sunday Morning Class - GCH, London

Shining Stars of the Kalpa Tree

Om shanti. Om shanti. Good morning. Merry Christmas, Happy New World. Happy New Year but Happy New World; the Seed of the human world tree relates the story of the evergreen tree, the Christmas tree, the eternal tree, or the human world tree.

As He is the Living Seed, He has all the history and geography of all the souls, and also the history and geography of this physical human world, the corporeal world.

Today is the special day of a wonderful story of the relationship between Christ and Krishna. It is such a wonderful account of giving and taking. Today, we celebrate, we greet each other, and we share the happiness of Christmas with each other. Holy night, silent night, beautiful light and bright light. It is the story of lights, the tree of lights. The eternal tree is the tree of lights, the tree in the soul world, where the Supreme Light, ever-bright shining Star, stays with His beautiful sparkling lights of love, peace, purity, happiness and bliss. That is the truth of the Light.

These lights come on this planet to play their parts. It is a story of Jesus and Christ; two wonderful souls, playing the role on this planet. Baba has said, and it is also remembered in Christianity, that the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. They call Christ, God the Father, they do not call Father Jesus. Have you ever heard of Father Jesus? Is Jesus God the Father, or Christ the God?

Who is the Father of Christianity? Was it Jesus or Christ who established Christianity? It is a wonderful relationship between these two souls. Just like the wonderful relationship between the one who establishes the Brahmin religion and the deity religion, the Supreme Soul, and Adam, or Adi Dev, or Brahma. The Christ soul was incarnated in the body of Jesus. The Christ soul adopted the body of Jesus and played miracles. It was the time of the dark night when the power of law was needed. So, the shining light appeared and taught the message of love, mercy, healing power, support, loving your neighbour, loving yourself, and tolerance power. Before that it was violence; both together brought silence. In this kalpa tree in the night, the shining star started to emerge. Abraham came and brought discipline, with Moses's commandments: If you do not follow this, there will be consequences of suffering. This was a discipline with force.

Then in this kalpa tree, another light emerged, and that was Buddha. He was asked once to speak about God, but he kept silent. The second time he was asked, again, he kept silent. The third time he was asked, the answer was silence. The follower asked Buddha why he did not reply to the question, he said, "I have replied. Silence is the answer." It is the power of silence. We recognise the inner beauty, inner purity and inner power, Silent Night, in the darkness where silence is not only needed in the external atmosphere, but silence is needed inside, so that we can experience the real power of the inner being of peace. In silence, you explore your purity because you look at your own self. You turn within yourself, and see the real beauty, real purity, and real power of the soul, which is the reality of spirituality. It is this spiritual power that empowers this world from time to time, otherwise, this world would have degraded at a fast pace. Baba says that these are the pillars.

Then, what about the family? What about humanity? Of course, with silence, one can focus on turning within and returning home in Moksha (eternal liberation). But we are living here on this planet. And so Jesus brought up the power of love. Without love for the self, one cannot share love with others, because one becomes dependent on experiencing love from others. And as soon as you recognise and love your own eternity, beauty and purity, it is magnetic energy, and the love of God is automatically connected. You can see the religion is established with these two powers.

Just as our deity religion is established with the power of purity, and is revealed through the example of Brahma and the Brahmins, in the same way, Jesus would have travelled through time, and I have the feeling that he would have come sometime in silver age to experience the happiness of heaven, as well as divinity and purity. This is why there was the expression of heavenly God the Father and paradise inside, that is, to create heaven in the heart. So, these things are mentioned. Those who also come from the subtle region, have the power to do some wonders. It was the wonder of their healing power; their royalty, their spirituality, and their greatness of generosity and gratitude.

Shiv Baba takes the body of Brahma. And Jesus was the instrument for Christ. So, it is a wonderful relationship of giving and taking. Christ was not put on the cross; it was Jesus. This is why he said, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" It was the Holy Ghost or the living energy of Christ who was in Jesus, but it was Jesus who was crucified. He remembered that light. And in the name of Christ, Jesus suffered. But throughout the whole 2023 years or more, it is Jesus who is worshipped. In similar way, the generosity of God is unlimited. Shiv Baba remains incognito, and Brahma had to go through all the defamation, allegations and criticism. It was the sacrifice of Brahma; his name, fame and his family, he surrendered himself. The generosity of God is that even the praise for God became a gift to Krishna. The devotees say Krishna is everywhere, Krishna is God. Similarly, Christ says, "Through Jesus you can come to me."

Every day, Brahma Baba says, glorify Shiv Baba; Krishna is not God. And God says, I am establishing the kingdom of Krishna. So, it is a generous relationship of these two powers. Brahma Baba is desperate to glorify the name of Shiv Baba and remove the name of Krishna from the Gita. And this is what is called real generosity, purity of gratitude and of true love. You give up your name, your fame, you surrender everything. Love means to surrender, and to let go of your own self and put others in front.

This is why I say it is a very nice day of the power of love. You know the story now. All of us are living stars, shining star and angels of the kalpa tree. Look at the tree, the holiest and highest souls, the shining souls are here. So, congratulations to all of you living stars. Merry Christmas. Merry Christmas.

I was thinking of Merry Kismet (fortune). Merry Kismet. Merry Baba ke Shrimat. Wah, Shrimat. Merry Kismet. How wonderful is our fortune, that we are the shining stars; we are the sparkling stars, shining on the kalpa tree, and we are the angels who are flying, free from bondage, free from burden, just to glorify the One Shining Star, for whom the three wise men went to see, following the star, and looked for the Jesus.

Here, Baba says, "Come to me, and become shining stars." Be wise and recognise the Supreme Star, and you will become angels. Om shanti.