

HAPPY Diwali

To the Living Rosary of Lights across the globe,

As Diwali approaches, we invoke the stage of remaining an unshakeable and immovable flame amidst the storms...
a sparkling lamp in the rosary who ignites the lamps of others.

There are two things to pay special attention to during this time:
cleaning and creating a new account book. With the power of pure thoughts of the original self and elevated thoughts of the Father's praise, we clean our hearts and minds of old beliefs. Only then can we invoke divine virtues.

In this invocation the offering of defects automatically happens. Our future royal sanskars emerge, and we have the experience of the golden-aged form now, at the confluence age. As we do this, the account of old sanskars, weaknesses, defects, and delicate nature finishes.

This is the true celebration of the coronation—
regaining full sovereignty of the self.

With all best wishes,
In Baba's loving yaad
BK Mohini and BK Jayanti
