THE SOURCE

RAKSHABANDHAN

RETURN TO PURITY

Heartfelt and love-filled greetings
on this auspicious occasion of Rakshabandhan.

At the present time, humanity longs for the deep peace of our true home, and the pure love of the One. Rakshabandhan is the sweet celebration of reconnecting with loyalty and determination to the Source of all the soul seeks. Through this sacred bond, the soul's fortune awakened and their destiny changed. The soul is restored to their original, divine state and decorated with the spiritual ornaments of all virtues and all powers, becoming an image that reveals the beauty of the Creator.

With the entire tree of humanity crying out for guidance and power to Return to the Source, let my bond to the One remain unbroken and deep, such that I become an unlimited source of hope, compassion, support and inspiration for all my fellow souls.
