

Rakshabandhan

BOND OF LOVE & PROTECTION

*Most Beloved Children Seated on Baba's Heart Throne...
Love-filled greetings on this auspicious occasion of Rakshabandhan!*

This year's Raksha Bandhan is a unique and special one. Due to social distancing and the precautions for safety, it will be the first time that each one's rakhi will be tied by BapDada, Himself, in the subtle region. As we experience this angelic raksha bandhan, let us remember

the significance of the promise of purity;
the importance of the canopy of protection; and the subtle thread of avyakt love.

The promise of purity that the soul makes to God is to live a clean, clear, and celibate life.
In return the Father gives us the tillak of 'victory is your birthright.'

The canopy of protection is God's shrimat. To follow in the footsteps of father Brahma is to stay safe in Baba's light, and be protected by Baba's might.

The subtle thread of avyakt love is the first blessing received from the Father. This subtle thread of avyakt love binds the family in unity and harmony. Every drop of avyakt love carries the power of the Ocean of Love to heal and restore hearts.

With sisterly love in the remembrance of our sweetest BapDada
