

Bond of Love & Protection on the Festival of Raksha Bandhan

Humanity's heart is calling out to be healed. The foundation of healing is love. Love supports; love uplifts; love restores; and love builds resilience and strength.

Raksha Bandhan is a festival that celebrates love as the sacred bond of relationships. It is symbolized by a thread tied on the wrist of the person and embodies the sacred gifts of honor, protection, dignity, and purity.

Raksha Bandhan reminds us that the eternal flame of love is intrinsic to the soul and gets rekindled when the soul remembers its true, authentic, spiritual identity.

In these uncertain times, Raksha Bandhan stirs sacred memories deep within – memories that anchor us to universal truths so profound as to turn the tides of time.

Raksha Bandhan recalls the relationship of the pure love between the soul and the Supreme Soul, a love that heals the heart and restores the soul to its original and complete self.

In accepting this simple thread, let us remember that the healing power of love comes from a Source that is beyond limits, conditions, and discrimination.

With sisterly love
B.K. Mohini
Regional Coordinator of the Brahma Kumaris
The Americas and Caribbean

