

Greetings for the Pure and Auspicious Festival of Raksha Bandhan – Sweet Letter of Remembrances

To the dearly loved children of the Ocean of Purity, our most beloved Avyakt BapDada, to those who are constantly offering the complete sacrifice of their old sanskars in the Fire of Love, who are becoming perfect and complete, equal to the Father, and bringing the new world closer,

To our instrument Teachers, and the decoration of the Brahmin Clan, the Rajyogi Sisters and Brothers in Bharat and foreign lands,

Please accept lots and lots of greetings for the pure and auspicious Festival of Raksha Bandhan, along with love-filled sweet remembrances.

Baba says, Sweet Children, in yoga make your love for Baba take on the form of fire, so that all waste thoughts, all weaknesses and all remaining old sanskars are destroyed in it. In this Ashwamedh Rudra Gyan Maha Yagya (the Great Sacrificial Fire of the Knowledge of Rudra in which all weaknesses are to be sacrificed), incinerate these great offerings in a collective way and cleanse all the sanskars in such a way that this sorrowful old world gets transformed into a new happy peaceful world.

Our sweet brothers and sisters, so this is how you are engaged in yog tapasya with a loving true heart, are you not? At present all the signs of the end of this Kaliyugi world are visible before our eyes. This world will go and our new world will come! Sweet Baba is giving us divine sustenance and the blessing of all powers from the Avyakt Region and is making us powerful so that we may fly in the flying stage.

On the one hand, this alokik festival of Raksha Bandhan binds all souls in the thread of love, and on the other hand it is also the memorial festival of sharing the Godly Message with all. Along with that, it is the memorial of us taking the determined thought to become completely faithful in our mind, speech, actions, relationships, and contacts, using everything in a worthwhile way and making the self completely pure.

Baba says, Children, now commit yourselves with these elevated thoughts:

1. I will become a sparkling flame of purity and dispel the darkness of impurity in all four directions.
2. I will serve through the mind by maintaining pure feelings and good wishes towards every soul. I will constantly speak only words filled with sweet love and instill zeal and enthusiasm in all. I will give happiness and take happiness.

Such a love-filled beautiful Rakhi, a symbol of these elevated thoughts, has come for all of you from Madhuban. Each of you may kindly accept this lovely Rakhi with that much love and feelings from the heart as it has been sent. When you get a Rakhi tied by your spiritual sisters, experience that this Rakhi has come from the unlimited Madhuban home on behalf of Sweet BapDada and all the Dadis in their Avyakt form. It has come to give me, the soul, the blessing of remaining healthy in mind and body.

So divine brothers and sisters please experience supersensuous joy while merging Beloved BapDada's love in your hearts and binding yourselves in the thread of love!

Accha, with lots and lots of loving remembrances to all.

On Spiritual Service,

B.K. Ratan Mohini
